The Phenomenology of Mind, Volume 1
by Georg Wilhelm Friedrich Hegel

Total running time: 13:15:49

The Phenomenology of Mind is an 1807 work of philosophy and the debut publication of German philosopher Georg Wilhelm Friedrich Hegel. The first significant translation of the original German text into English was written by British philosopher James Black Baille. The book’s influence on Western philosophy has been profound and has been credited with the development of movements ranging from communism to fascism.

This recording is in the public domain and may be reproduced, distributed, or modified without permission. For more information or to volunteer, visit librivox.org. Cover picture by Edvard Munch (1907). Copyright expired in U.S. Cover design by David Purdy. This design is in the public domain.